SONG: The Country Song

I walk along the road and see the trees so green.

I walk across the fields and hear the songbirds sing.

I live in the country, I don't live in the town.

I like to take things easy and watch the sun go down.

I jump across the stream and see the big green frogs.

I hurry past the farm and hear the farmer's dog.

I live in the country, I don't live in the town.

I like to take things easy and watch the sun go down.

I walk along the road and see the trees so green.

I walk across the fields and hear the songbirds sing.

I live in the country, I don't live in the town.

I like to take things easy and watch the sun go down.

I live in the country, I don't live in the town.

I like to take things easy and watch the sun go down.

SONG: The Travelling Song

We're on the road, and we're on our way.

We're going to town, and it's miles away.

It's a long, long road, but we're going today.

We're going to town, and it's miles away.

It's a long, long road, but we're going today.

We're on the road, and we're on our way.

Hey, hey, hey!

Hey, hey, hey!

We're on the road, and we're on our way.

We're going to town, and it's miles away.

It's a long, long road, but we're going today.

I am the Town Mouse, I live in a town.
I never stay in one place, I move around.
I eat fast food, I never slow down.
I am the Town Mouse, this is my town.
He is the Town Mouse and this is his town!

There are cars and bikes on every street.
Buses and people, legs and feet!
It's a dangerous place for little mice.
But Town Mouse lives here, he thinks it's nice!

All that noise gets me down.

I'm happy in this big old town.
